

Do not continue to raise taxes on the already overburdened taxpayers. As a Realtor I see firsthand the negative effect of our high tax rates, as more and more sellers are making the decision to leave Connecticut. Those who cannot do so now are making the necessary plans to do so in the future.

We are taxed on our utility bills, our homes, cars, our labor, even our death.

Employers in Connecticut pay an extra SUTA penalty to repay the Federal loans for past borrowing by the State of Connecticut.

The time has come to do the hard job of Cutting the Budget rather than Raise Revenue.
