

To Whom It May Concern:

I consider the tax increases proposed under SB 946 to be perfectly reasonable, given the state's financial needs. My local representative Dave Yaccarino is a ninny for insisting on a hearing so that every individual interest group (veterinarians! golf courses!) can show up to try to carve away at their own little sections of the tax. This wastes the legislature's time.

Peace,
J. Kelly
North Haven, CT

kit.snicket@att.net