Subject: Tax Hike - Public Hearing Testimony

Dear Senator Fasano and Representative Klarides:

With other states actively courting business with low or no taxes on manufacturing, how can Connecticut hope to survive in a competitive environment!The state of N.Y. is right next door and apparently their legislators got the message quite some time ago.I get at the minimum 2 calls per month from other state development agencies and the feeling of hopelessness for CT. based business is growing. If Ct. wants to grow their economy and be a desirable place to live,and promote a competitive jobs creating business environment,it's time to wake up and face the facts of life.The working population and businesses are dam tired of carrying the burden of ever increasing social programs and wasteful spending.
