Dear Senator Fasano and Representative Klarides:

Is there a democrat in Hartford with half a brain who realizes that such draconian taxes only ensure that the electorate uses these services less, not more. The only saving grace here is that the "brain diminished" people have to pay as well. CT will never elect enough republicans to the legislature because they are basically the minority populations who inhabit the cities and they don't pay most of these taxes in any case - or any taxes for that matter. What a joke: the poorly educated vote and cause the well-educated to suffer. There is no way to fix this situation in the near future.
